Dreams are on the way

Story of Our Name...

Once upon a time, there was a cripple ant. Like all the other ants, he would also work hard, collect food for winter and would not think of anything else but his work. One day, this cripple ant felt an immense love and desire to go on a pilgrimage to mecca; but the ant knew nothing about the way to Kaaba or had any clue... but this love burned his heart deep within... The ant couldn't take it any longer and set off for the pilgrimage... Day and night, he would ask, search, walk and walk with his crippled foot...

The ant couldn't walk any longer. He dragged his foot across the desert. He wouldn't give up; the road wouldn't end; nor would his love... One day, as he was dragging his foot across the burning desert, he came across a desert mouse. The mouse felt pity for the ant and asked where he was going. With confidence, the ant said he was on a pilgrimage to mecca. The desert mouse laughed; "you are a tiny ant, and a cripple too. How are you going to go all that way like this?" The ant was not bothered. As he continued his way, he called out to the desert mouse: "I may be small and yes, crippled; maybe I will not make it there... but that is okay, I will die on my way!" So, from this story of an ant, we started out to find our name. We will create designs depending on the needs of each and every house all around the world. We will work towards having Yol products in every home.

It didn't happen?
That's okay,
we will die on the way!

We Trust Our Brand's Energy

Seriousness isn't an obstacle for sincerity;" this is how Sedat Portakal begins to talk. Mr Portakal, who began his journey at just 10 years old, and continues as the founder of Yol Living, states that sincerity is the most important principle of the brand. Mr Portakal, who imagines the brand as a true gentleman, that feeds itself from various resources, synthesizing East and West, with a multicultural understanding; aims to create a range of products that showcase strong design, value, and quality of production for Turkish furniture. Another aim of his is to integrate the values from his own life into the brand to transform it into a brand that also provides social benefits.

Especially during a time which seems out of a sci-fi movie script, he emphasizes the importance of solidarity and cooperation, and adds; "Competition comes across as a highly polished concept in today's world; whereas competition doesn't mean anything for those who are in competition with themselves; a person wakes up every day with the same competitor; him/herself."

As the Founder of Yol Living, Mr Portakal who wants to talk about the unique designs, brand identity and its functional products with the world trusts the energy of his brand.

Minimal, elegant, inspiring...

Every element has a value in life; carbon, oxygen, hidrojen etc; and non-living elements come alive in human factories. Just like Gepetto, we give life to them by processing the materials for our products. As Yol Living, this is the philosophy we take on in our products and strive for our products to be as healthy, safe, practical and happiness inducing helpers as possible for our consumers. For this to be sustainable, we keep employee health and safety as top priority. We build partnerships with reliable and competent suppliers; we provide competent, volunteer and happy labor force.

Companies that don't invest 75% of their day into their future are bound to fail

Short, medium and long term goals determined by our company are our projections in front of us, and by doing the right work the right way we plan to achieve them. We continue our studies on continued development through Kaizen philosophy.

Succes is not a destination to be reached

Success is a journey; to start a journey; to tackle all obstacles; to die for the word. This is how the story of our brand was born.

Hello, I'm Paçuk.

I've been here since Yol Furniture has been established. I'm very happy, and love my colleagues; and they love me. There are times when I talk to them but strangely, they don't understand what I'm saying. I wasn't born yesterday, I've got years of furniture experience. I try to include my love and vision into Yol Furniture as much as possible. Together we are one big, happy family. And, for where I see myself in the next 5 years; there is a couch on the right hand side at the entrance. It's comfortable, I prefer to be there. Sending love to everyone.

We Claim Our Brand with Meticulousness and Immaculacy

Sezer Portakal

İhracat Müdürü / Ortak Export Manager / Co-Founder

The doors that open to the world need to be corroded as a new, young and dynamic brand. Everyone who hasn't heard about us is our potential client, more precisely our solution partner. For every one of our business partners, we offer as innovative and versatile functionality as possible.

I gained all of my export experience here. However, Yol Furniture instilled a discipline within my character, rather than a sectorial experience. It's an incredible experience to watch our brand growing, observe its ever growing success every year and witness all the processes.

Our brand is in a significant process of meticulousness. Yol Furniture claims meticulousness and immaculacy in its production philosophy; because the growing understanding is solution, truth and transparency in today's information technologies age.

For this reason, we don't adopt these concepts as a trend but as facts.

Since the beginning, Yol Living brings together sophisticated and contemporary designs with inspiring colours and paves the way for world trends with the elegant and functional details in its products.

Raw materials that are shaped by Yol's brand philosophy, creates the simplicity in homes with its character and presents distinct atmospheres in different places.

YOL FURNITURE DECLARATION OF RESPONSIBILITY

We take responsibility of integrity in every work we do, and we base all our relations on human respect. We see each other both as teammates and each other's customers. We are aware that we are not perfect and keep our conscience mechanism always active. We may have an excuse for our first mistake, however, we have no excuse for any repetition; "there may be a problem but there is always a solution" is the principle we operate on. As competent and volunteer employees, we try to do the "right work" "at the right time" "the right way" without any delay.

We foresee the errors before setting off to work and take precautions. We start work by thinking of the end result. This doesn't mean we will not make any mistakes. As responsible individuals, we accept our mistakes and don't start blaming others. When we see mistakes, we accept it as our duty to tell each other with the appropriate manner. When our mistake is told, we accept it with maturity and make up for it immediately and quickly apply corrective action. We learn the lessons from our mistakes and know how to turn them into experiences. Even though it hurts, we behave as such.

When we are faced with a negative situation, we approach it with a positive, constructive and solution oriented attitude without blaming anyone. We do not wait for anyone to warn us to correct something that we see as wrong; we take responsibility and do what is needed to be done. Depending on the issue, we create tasks and we accept anything that benefits our firm as our duties.

Before making a promise, we think about its feasibility and make promises that we can fulfil. If a promise is made to a customer by the marketing, sales or customer services, as the whole team, we strife to do what is needed to be done to keep that promise and we take the responsibility to complete our parts in presenting our customers with the expected products and services at the highest possible degree and with on-time, undamaged delivery.

We know that to be a team means to share and to help each other. We are aware of each other's individuality and for the team's success, we respect each other's opinions and we trust each other. No matter what our personal opinions are, if there is a task at hand, a goal to be met, we do everything in our power to realize the decision that is made and the task to be fulfilled.

Yol Furniture Employees...

Elegance and Simplicity is our Specialty people and objects." "I also say this maxim to all my colleagues at Yol need to get rid of the excess. This applies both to

Furniture and tell them that they need to integrate it into their lives too. Yol Furniture is quite a young brand, however with its vision it's like today's youth. Just like a Y generation member that finds an error in Apple software at the age of 12, who gets an internship at NASA, who questions, wonders; who makes an effort to improve oneself and is sensitive

It excites me as well, to be a part of such a vibrant brand. With our vision, meticulousness in our production quality, and with a simplistic narrative, I think that it is possible to create immaculate living spaces."

Focusing on the needs of living spaces that modern architecture provides; we are moving towards becoming a respected global furniture brand that brings together elegance and quality in its products, prioritizes customer satisfaction and reliability.

We are aware of our responsibility to our business partners, employees, environment and the community; therefore we create living spaces that make individuals feel speacial, comfortable, valued and happy.
